13. To undertake any other appropriate tasks requested by the centre.

BWC is committed to equality of opportunity to its workers and users and in its provision of services. It is the responsibility of each and every worker to ensure the implementation of its equal opportunities policy.

Under the Health & Safety at Work Act all volunteers are required to both take care of their own safety and that of other volunteers, centre users and employees and to cooperate with BWC in complying with statutory duties.

Teamwork is vital to the success and professional standard of the centre and all volunteers are encouraged to take an active part in regular meetings and contribute to the general development of the centre. This may also include taking responsibility for specific areas of work.

Volunteers are offered supervision in groups and support through the end of session de-brief with the Volunteer Services Support Worker or Volunteer Services Coordinator.

Strict adherence to confidentiality, particularly in respect of personal details and background of workers and clients is required of all workers.
